

CAPS FOR CANCER RESEARCH

December 25, 2004 - Newsletter N° 31

Cap from Belgium

The objective of C4CR is to gather 10.000 different beer caps, which will then be sold to a beer museum, with 100% of the proceeds being donated to a Cancer Research Foundation.

Thank you to all of our friends around the world for helping us with this worthy project.

Today being Christmas, we'd like to wish peace, happiness and health to you and all your loved ones. Santa Claus was good enough to send C4CR the following Christmas caps from Australia, Belgium, Croatia, Denmark, France, Germany, Japan, Latvia, Moldavia, Norway, the Russian Federation, Spain, the United Kingdom and the United States of America. Can you guess where each comes from?

- Kudos to our contributors:

Once again, we'd like to express our gratitude to someone very special to our cause: Frances P., from Fradley, Staffordshire in the UK, who has been contributing loads of caps to C4CR. Every month or so, and this since the very beginning of the C4CR project, Frances goes out scouring the supermarkets looking for new beers with different caps. Of course, then her husband Gary must open the beer bottles and drink the contents, but he seems to have no objection in doing so, as long as it help C4CR's objectives. So many heartfelt thanks to the two of you for your dedication and caring.

- Famous beer quotes:

- "Upon my faith beer is a heavenly gift." - From the Opera: The Bartered Bride by Bedrich Smetana, 1866.
- "Upon my faith beer caps sent to C4CR are a heavenly gift." - Newsletter editor, 2004.
- "The immense importance of a pint of ale to a common person should never be overlooked." - Canon of St-Paul's Cathedral.
- "The immense importance of yet another ale cap to C4CR should never be overlooked." - Newsletter editor.
- "I wish you a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, with your pockets full of money, and your cellar full of beer." - Old English Carol.

Hem, I must think of dropping a sack of beer caps into C4CR's chimney this evening!
