

CAPS FOR CANCER RESEARCH

January 23, 2005 - Newsletter N° 33

Cap from Cameroon

The objective of C4CR is to gather 10.000 different beer caps, which will then be sold to a beer museum, with 100% of the proceeds being donated to a Cancer Research Foundation.

Thank you to all of our friends around the world for helping us with this worthy project.

Bière, bier, bere, birra, bira, bia, öl, øl, olut, alus, piwo, sör, cerveza or cerveja are the various ways of saying beer in Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Spain, Sweden, Turkey and Vietnam. Are you enough of a polyglot or worldly beer drinker to know where each cap below comes from?

- C4CR on the web:

Right upon finding out about our beloved project, Tom W. from Westfield in Ohio, USA, immediately decided to forge ahead and help C4CR. First he purchased a 6-pack of beer featuring a collector's set of six different caps, and after drinking one, started to ponder about finishing the rest of the five. Tom then decided to promote C4CR on his local community web site <http://www.westfield-center.com/html/c4cr.html>, which should lead to some extra cap donations. A great one-pager explaining C4CR now exists, along with access to your favorite newsletter available in PDF files.

After letting you all know about Tom's endeavours, Frances P. from Fradley, Staffordshire in the UK, immediately reacted to this great idea and included a link to Tom's page on her own web site: <http://www.buttercupminiatures.co.uk/r/m/Charities-appealing-for-unwanted-items.html>.

By the way, both web sites are quite interesting, so if you haven't been there yet, I strongly urge you to check them out, especially if you wonder what buttercup miniatures may be...

So who will be next and follow Tom and Frances' lead and mention C4CR on the Net, or better yet volunteer to create C4CR's own website? In any case, thank you, Tom and Frances.

PS we hope you appreciate our choice of cap below, representing a green on blue world, colours of today's newsletter, and nicely tying up all contents (how to say "beer" around the world, and WORLD-wide-web) ...

Regardless of how you say beer in the part of the world you live in, please send your caps to C4CR!
